ACT No. XVI OF 1895.

PASSED BY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 10th October, 1895.)

An Act to repeal certain obsolete Enactments and to amend certain other Enactments.

WHEREAS it is expedient that certain enactments specified in the first schedule to this Act, which are spent, or have ceased to be in force otherwise than by express, specific repeal, or have by lapse of time or otherwise become unnecessary, should be expressly and specifically repealed;

And whereas it is also expedient that certain formal amendments should be made in the enactments specified in the second schedule to this Act;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Repealing and Amending Act, 1895. Title, extent and commencement.

(2) It extends to the whole of the territories administered by the Governor of Bombay in Council; and

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. (1) The enactments specified in the first schedule are hereby repealed to the extent mentioned in the fourth column thereof. Enactments in first and second schedules repealed and amended respectively.

(2) The enactments specified in the second schedule shall be modified to the extent and in the manner mentioned in the fourth column thereof.

3. The repeal by this Act of any enactment shall not affect any Statute, Act or Regulation in which such enactment has been applied, incorporated or referred to; Savings.

[ Price three annas and nine pies. ]

and this Act shall not affect the validity, invalidity, effect or consequences of anything already done or suffered, or any right, title, obligation or liability already acquired, accrued or incurred, or any remedy or proceeding in respect thereof, or any release or discharge of or from any debt, penalty, obligation, liability, claim or demand, or any indemnity already granted, or the proof of any past act or thing;

nor shall this Act affect any principle or rule of law, or established jurisdiction, form or course of pleading; practice or procedure, or existing usage, custom, privilege, restriction, exemption, office or appointment, notwithstanding that the same respectively may have been in any manner affirmed by, recognized in or derived from any enactment hereby repealed;

nor shall the repeal by this Act of any enactment provide or restore any jurisdiction, office, custom, liability, right, title, privilege, restriction, exemption, usage, practice, procedure or other matter or thing not now existing or in force.

(4) The other sections of this Act shall come into Commence- force, subject to the provisions of sub-section (5), ment.

(a) in the City of Bombay at once,
and

(b) in each municipal district elsewhere in respect of which the Governor in Council at any time so directs by notification, from such date, which shall not be less than one month from the date of the notification, as he prescribes therein in this behalf.

(5) (a) Nothing contained in any section coming into force under sub-section (4) shall apply Provisions restricting the application of certain sections.

(i) in the City of Bombay, in the first instance, to any food other than ghee,

(ii)

[Price—1½ Annas.]

(ii) in any municipal district, to any food which is not of a kind to which the provisions contained in such section, are, by a notification under this section, for the time being made applicable in such district.

(b) But each of the said sections and of the amendments therein contained, in respect of which the Governor in Council at any time so directs by notification, shall in the City of Bombay or in any municipal district mentioned in such notification, apply to food of all kinds, or to food of any kind therein specified, from such date, which shall not be less than one month from the date of such notification, as shall be prescribed therein in this behalf.

(c) The Governor in Council may at any time cancel or vary, but not otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this section, any notification made thereunder.

No proceedings to be instituted without leave of Commissioner or President or Vice-President of Municipality.

(d) No proceedings shall at any time be instituted under section 3, without the order or consent in writing,

(i) in the City of Bombay, of the Commissioner, or

(ii) in a municipal district, of the President or the Vice-President of the Municipality.

Summons when to be applied for and what it is to contain.

(e) In all prosecutions under section 3 or section 4, the Magistrate shall refuse to issue a summons for the attendance of any person accused of an offence against such section, unless the summons is applied for within a reasonable time from the alleged date of the offence of which such person is accused, and if such prosecution relates to a perishable article purchased from such person for the purpose of analysis, the application for such summons shall be refused unless it is made within twenty-eight days from the date of the purchase of such article, and particulars of the offence or offences against this

Act

Act of which such person is accused, and the name of the prosecutor, shall be stated in the summons, and the day fixed for the hearing of the case shall not be less than seven days from the day on which the summons is served upon such person.

(6) In this section and in the amendments contained in section 6, the term "food" does not include drugs or water, but includes every other article which is used for food or drink by man.

Meaning of "food," where its application is not restricted.

2. Subject to the provisions of section 1, this Act shall, in so far as it affects the City of Bombay, be read with, and construed as if it were part of, the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, and, in so far as it affects any other part of the Presidency of Bombay, shall be read with, and construed as if it were part of, the Bombay District Municipal Acts, 1873 and 1884.

Act to be read with Municipal Acts in force.

Bo. Act III of 1888.

Bo. Acts VI of 1873 and II of 1884.

PROVISIONS WHICH RELATE TO THE SALE OF FOOD, AND WHICH MAY BY NOTIFICATION BE MADE APPLICABLE TO ANY FOOD.

3. (1) Whoever sells to the prejudice of the purchaser any article of food which is not of the nature, substance or quality of the article demanded by such purchaser, shall be punished for the first offence with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and for a second or any subsequent offence with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

Punishment for selling human food not of the proper nature, substance or quality.

(2) Provided that no offence shall be deemed to have been committed under this section in the following cases, that is to say,—

Protection to persons acting in good faith.

(a) where any matter or ingredient not injurious to health has been added to the article of food, because the same is required for the production or preparation thereof, as an article of commerce, in a state fit for carriage or consumption, and not fraudulently to increase the bulk, weight or measure of the food or conceal the inferior quality thereof,

(b)

(b) where in the process of production, preparation or conveyance of such article of food some extraneous substance has unavoidably become intermixed therewith,

(c) where any matter or ingredient not injurious to health has been added to or mixed with such article of food and, before the sale thereof, the seller has brought to the notice of the purchaser, either by means of a label distinctly and legibly written or printed on or with the article or otherwise, the fact that such matter or ingredient has been so added or mixed.

*Explanation :—*If in compliance with a demand for ghee any article is supplied which contains any substance not exclusively derived from milk, such article shall be deemed to have been sold to the prejudice of the purchaser within the meaning of sub-section (1), unless before the sale thereof the seller has brought to the notice of the purchaser the fact that it contains such substance.

What is or is not a good defence in prosecutions under this section.

(3) In any prosecution under this section it shall be no defence to allege that the vendor was ignorant of the nature, substance or quality of the article sold by him, or that the purchaser having bought only for analysis was not prejudiced by the sale.

Provided that the vendor shall not be deemed to have committed an offence under this section, if he proves to the satisfaction of the Court—

(a) that the article sold was purchased by him as the same in nature, substance and quality as that demanded by the purchaser, and with a written warranty to the effect that it was of such nature, substance and quality,

(b) that he had no reason to believe at the time when he sold it that the article was not of such nature, substance and quality as aforesaid, and

(c) that he sold it in the same state in which he purchased it.

4. (1) If in the City of Bombay the Commissioner or any officer empowered by him in that behalf, or elsewhere the officer authorized by the Municipality for the purposes of section 68 of the Bombay District Municipal Act, 1873, shall apply to purchase any article of food exposed for sale, and shall tender the price for a quantity not more than shall be reasonably requisite for the purpose of analysis, and the person exposing the same for sale shall refuse to sell the same, such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees.

Bo. Act VI of 1873.

Persons refusing to sell any article to proper authority liable to penalty.

(2) The Commissioner or officer empowered as aforesaid in the City of Bombay, and elsewhere the officer authorised by the Municipality as aforesaid, on purchasing any article under this section for the purposes of analysis, shall, after the purchase shall have been completed, forthwith notify to the seller or his agent selling the article his intention to have the same analysed by the Chemical Analyser to Government, and shall offer to divide the article into three parts to be then and there separated and each part to be marked and sealed or fastened up in such manner as its nature will permit, and shall, if required to do so, proceed accordingly, and shall deliver one of the parts to the seller or his agent.

Provisions for identifying sample purchased.

He shall afterwards retain one of the said parts for future comparison and submit the third part, if he deems it right to have the article analysed, to the Chemical Analyser to Government.

(3) If the seller or his agent do not accept the offer of the purchaser as aforesaid to divide the article purchased in his presence, the Chemical Analyser to Government receiving the article for analysis shall divide the same into two parts, and shall seal or fasten up one of those parts and shall cause it, either upon receipt of the sample or when he supplies his certificate, to be delivered to the purchaser, who shall retain the same for production in case proceedings shall afterwards be taken in the matter.

ACT No. VI OF 1899.

PASSED BY THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.
(Received the assent of the Governor General on the 17th February, 1899.)

An Act to amend the Indian Contract Act, 1872.

IX of 1872.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Indian Contract Act, 1872; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Indian Contract Act Amendment Act, 1899.

Short title,
commencement and application.

(2) It shall come into force on the first day of May, 1899; and

(3) It shall apply to every contract in respect of which any suit is instituted, or which is put in issue in any suit, after the commencement of this Act.

IX of 1872.

2. Section 16 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872, is hereby repealed, and the following is substituted therefor, namely:—

Substitution of new section for section 16, Act
IX, 1872.

‘16. (1) A contract is said to be induced by “undue influence” where the relations subsisting between the parties are such that one of the parties is in a position to dominate the will of the other and uses that position to obtain an unfair advantage over the other.

“Undue influence” defined.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing principle, a person is deemed to be in a position to dominate the will of another—

(a) where he holds a real or apparent authority over the other, or where he stands in a fiduciary relation to the other; or

(b) where he makes a contract with a person whose mental capacity is temporarily or permanently permanently affected by reason of age, illness, or mental or bodily distress.

(3) Where a person who is in a position to dominate the will of another, enters into a contract with him, and the transaction appears, on the face of it or on the evidence adduced, to be unconscionable, the burden of proving that such contract was not induced by undue influence shall lie upon the person in a position to dominate the will of the other.

Nothing in this sub-section shall affect the provisions of section 111 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872. I of 1872.

Illustrations.

(a) A having advanced money to his son, B, during his minority, upon B's coming of age obtains, by misuse of parental influence, a bond from B for a greater amount than the sum due in respect of the advance. A employs undue influence.

(b) A, a man enfeebled by disease or age, is induced, by B's influence over him as his medical attendant, to agree to pay B an unreasonable sum for his professional services. B employs undue influence.

(c) A, being in debt to B, the money-lender of his village, contracts a fresh loan on terms which appear to be unconscionable. It lies on B to prove that the contract was not induced by undue influence.

(d) A applies to a banker for a loan at a time when there is stringency in the money market. The banker declines to make the loan except at an unusually high rate of interest. A accepts the loan on these terms. This is a transaction in the ordinary course of business, and the contract is not induced by undue influence.

3. In section 19 of the said Act the words "undue influence" are hereby repealed, and after the same section the following is inserted, namely :—

Amendment of section 19 of, and addition of new section to, Act IX, 1872.
Power to set aside contract induced by undue influence.

"19A. When consent to an agreement is caused by undue influence, the agreement is a contract voidable at the option of the party whose consent was so caused.

Any such contract may be set aside either absolutely or, if the party who was entitled to avoid it has received received any benefit thereunder, upon such terms and conditions as to the Court may seem just.

Illustrations.

(a) A's son has forged B's name to a promissory note. B, under threat of prosecuting A's son, obtains a bond from A for the amount of the forged note. If B sues on this bond, the Court may set the bond aside.

(b) A, a money-lender, advances Rs. 100 to B, an agriculturist, and, by undue influence, induces B to execute a bond for Rs. 200 with interest at 6 per cent. per month. The Court may set the bond aside, ordering B to repay the Rs. 100 with such interest as may seem just."

4. (1) Section 74, paragraph one, of the said Act is hereby repealed and the following is substituted therefor, namely :—

Amendment of section 74, Act IX, 1872.

"74. When a contract has been broken, if a sum is named in the contract as the amount to be paid in case of such breach, or if the contract contains any other stipulation by way of penalty, the party complaining of the breach is entitled, whether or not actual damage or loss is proved to have been caused thereby, to receive from the party who has broken the contract reasonable compensation not exceeding the amount so named or, as the case may be, the penalty stipulated for.

Compensation for breach of contract where penalty stipulated for.

Explanation.—A stipulation for increased interest from the date of default may be a stipulation by way of penalty."

(2) After illustration (c) to the said section the following illustrations shall be added, namely :—

"(d) A gives B a bond for the repayment of Rs. 1,000 with interest at 12 per cent. at the end of six months, with a stipulation that, in case of default, interest shall be payable at the rate of 75 per cent. from the date of default. This is a stipulation by way of penalty, and B is only entitled to recover from A such compensation as the Court considers reasonable.

(e) A, who owes money to B, a money-lender, undertakes to repay him by delivering to him 10 maunds of grain on a certain date, and stipulates that, in the event of his not delivering the stipulated amount by the stipulated date, he shall be liable to deliver 20 maunds. This is a stipulation by way of penalty,

penalty, and B is only entitled to reasonable compensation in case of breach.

(f) A undertakes to repay B a loan of Rs. 1,000 by five equal monthly instalments, with a stipulation that, in default of payment of any instalment, the whole shall become due. This stipulation is not by way of penalty, and the contract may be enforced according to its terms.

(g) A borrows Rs. 100 from B and gives him a bond for Rs. 200 payable by five yearly instalments of Rs. 40, with a stipulation that, in default of payment of any instalment, the whole shall become due. This is a stipulation by way of penalty."

BOMBAY ACT No. I OF 1900.

An Act to amend the Bombay Civil Courts Act, 1869.

(The assent of the Governor-General of India to this Act was published by the Governor of Bombay on the 1st June 1900.)

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Bombay Civil Courts Act, 1869, as amended by the Bombay Revenue Jurisdiction Acts, 1876 and 1880, the Repealing and Amending Act, 1891, and by the Bombay Civil Courts Act Amendment Act, 1895; and whereas the previous sanction of His Excellency the Governor General required by section 5 of the Indian Councils Act, 1892, has been obtained for the passing of this Act; It is enacted as follows:—

XIV of 1869.
X of 1876
& XV of 1880.
XII of 1891.
B.C. III of 1895.
F5 & 56.
Vic., c. 14.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Bombay Civil Courts Amendment Act, 1900."

2. In the first sentence of section 16 of the Bombay Civil Courts Act, 1869, amended as aforesaid, after the word "value" where it first occurs shall be inserted the following:— "applications or references under Special Acts" and after the word "applications" where it occurs for the second time the words "or references" shall be inserted.

XIV of 1869.

Amendment of section 16.

3. At the end of section 21 of the said Act, amended as aforesaid, the following shall be added:—

Amendment of section 21.

"Provided that for special reasons it shall be lawful for the Governor of Bombay in Council at any time to close temporarily any such Subordinate Court."

4. (a) In the first paragraph of section 23 of the said Act, amended as aforesaid, after the word "jurisdictions" the following words shall be added:—

Amendment of section 23

"Provided

“Provided that for special reasons it shall be lawful for the Governor of Bombay in Council to order that a Subordinate Judge shall hold his Court at a place outside the local limits of his jurisdiction.”

(b) For the last paragraph of section 23 of the said Act, amended as aforesaid, there shall be substituted the following :—

“For the purpose of assisting the Judge of any Subordinate Court in the disposal of the civil business on his file, the Governor of Bombay in Council may appoint to such Court one or more Joint Subordinate Judges, or the District Judge may, with the previous sanction of the High Court, depute to such Court the Judge of another Subordinate Court within the district. A Subordinate Judge thus appointed or deputed to assist in the Court of another Subordinate Judge shall dispose of such civil business within the limits of his pecuniary jurisdiction as may, subject to the control of the District Judge, be referred to him by the Judge of such Court.

“For the purposes of this section the provisions of the Act applicable to Subordinate Judges shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, applicable to Joint Subordinate Judges: Provided that no such Joint Subordinate Judge shall hear and determine any suit instituted under section 4 of the Dekkhan Agriculturists’ Relief Act, 1879,<sup>XVII of 1875.</sup> unless the value of the said suit falls within the limits of the pecuniary jurisdiction conferred on him by that Act.”
